Childrens Liturgy

It has been lovely to see so many children in the school hall at Sunday mass. Now we are back in church, we would love to restart Children liturgy. This is where the children have their own special liturgy focused at their level of understanding. They leave church at the beginning of mass and go to the presbytery with Children's liturgists, where they talk and share thoughts and ideas on the gospel of the day – with planned activities to enthuse and inspire children to respond and to enjoy themselves too. They then return to mass in church at the Offertory.
If you would like to be involved in Children's Liturgy or find out more - please do see Mary, Maria or Bernadette for more information.

Papal Curiosities

How many windows are in the Papal residence?

There are 12,523 windows in the Apostolic Palace.

How much air traffic occurs over Vatican City?

You won't be annoyed by noisy air traffic when you visit the Vatican. Airplanes are not permitted to fly over the State of Vatican City.

What is the most ornate of the papal treasures?

Among the papal treasures are nine tiaras. The one used for the coronation of Pope Pius X (1903-1914), which is shaped like a beehive and ornately embroidered, is decorated with 529 diamonds, 252 pearls, 32 rubies, 19 emeralds, and 11 sapphires.

Where does the word “Vatican” come from and what does it mean?

The word derives from the Latin vates, which means “tellers of the future”. This was the name given to a hillside on the west bank of the Tiber River in Rome because daily lineups of passersby on the street. In the fourteenth century, when the papacy was returned to Rome from Avignon (France), the present-day Vatican became the residence of the popes, and the word came to refer to the enclave in the middle of Rome that had become the seat of the Roman Catholic Church.

Does the pope have a private garden?

Although the Papal Gardens, which can be visited by tourists, have been used in the past by various popes of century, the pontiff has yet another private garden. Located on the roof of the Apostolic Palace, almost directly above the Pope's private quarters on the top floor, is a trellised garden of walks, fountains, and shrubs that is cleverly concealed by a false roof so that at no point inside Vatican City can any person observe His Holiness when he is there. Nor can the roof garden be seen with a high-powered telescope from any location in Rome.
