From the Archives

Next Sunday, the 19th of October 2025, we welcome Archbishop Miguel Maury Buendía, the Apostolic Nuncio of Great Britain, to celebrate Sunday mass for our two parishes at St Thomas's, Claughton. It is a great privilege to welcome the Pope's Ambassador to this special part of Lancashire and I share with you today a short biography of our guest.

Miguel Maury Buendía was born in Madrid on 19 November 1955 to a family with Andalusian roots. He completed his early education at the Jesuits' San Estanislao Kotska School in Malaga. He then transferred to the Ramiro de Maeztu Institute in Madrid, where he obtained a degree in Geography and History. Later transferring to the University of Madrid to study the History of Art, from the Faculty of Philosophy and Letters. He also successfully completed courses at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Madrid. From university he entered the Conciliar Seminary of Madrid before being ordained a priest for the archdiocese on 26 June 1980. On 1 July, he was appointed vicar of the parish of the Holy Trinity of Collado Villalba, where he remained until October 1984. During military service, he served as chaplain of the Military Hospital of Barcelona and the Army High School. In 1985, he obtained a degree in dogmatic theology at the Pontifical University of Salamanca and a doctorate in canon law at the Pontifical University of Santo Tomás in Urbe (Angelicum) in 1987. He speaks Spanish, Italian, English, French, Slovene, and Russian.

The archbishop entered the Holy See's diplomatic service in July 1987, serving in diplomatic missions in several countries such as Rwanda, Uganda, Morocco, Nicaragua, Egypt, Slovenia, and Ireland. In 2004, he was called to the Section for Relations with States within the Secretariat of State of the Holy See. Four years later, in 2008, he was appointed titular Archbishop of Italica and Apostolic Nuncio to Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan. Pope Francis appointed him Apostolic Nuncio to Romania on 5 December 2015, and to the Republic of Moldova on 25 January 2016.

He was appointed the Apostolic Nuncio to the Court of St. James's on the 13th of April 2023, filling a post vacant since the previous Nuncio to Great Britain, Archbishop Claudio Gugerotti, retired. Following his appointment Archbishop Miguel Maury Buendía, presented his Letters of Credence to HM The King on 18 May 2023.

We welcome the Archbishop to our two parishes.
